

As an Amateur Radio Operator (callsign N5HK) I feel a lot of consideration should be given to protect the Amateur Radio community around the nation from the interference it might cause if our Nation would have a Blackout or Brownout of cell-phone and other commercial means of communication. The "access BPL" signals can radiate outside power lines causing interference.